

Report May Cause Changes At Colleges

BY TROY MARTIN
(Report from Austin)

Sweeping changes in Texas institutions of higher learning may be expected if the report of the governor's Committee of Twenty-Five is accepted.

This information came the latter part of last week from Dr. Arleigh Templeton, executive director of the committee which is officially known as the Governor's Committee on Education Beyond High School.

He made the statement at the annual meeting of the board of regents of Texas State Teachers Colleges in Austin.

Dr. Templeton did not elaborate. He said the report should be ready by Aug. 25.

Dr. Templeton was with the board of regents some hour and a half in executive session.

Whether he talked to the board in his capacity as executive director of the governor's committee or in his capacity as the new president of Sam Houston State College was not made public.

An air of mystery was injected into the meeting when the board in executive session acted on an item of business included in the West Texas State University report to the regents.

The report was submitted to the regents by Dr. James P. Cornette, president of West Texas State University.

Item number nine was clipped from a copy of the report given to the press.

Regent Clayton Heare of Amarillo implied that publicity on the item might cost the state money.

Two new building projects expected to cost in the neighborhood of $500,000 got a green light from the regents.

Involved are a vocation building and an addition to the existing WT library building.

Comptroller Virgil Henson said the addition to the library is projected to cost about $300,000 and the vocational building is expected to cost about $200,000.

The board approved preliminary plans and sanctioned hiring the architect firm of Hucker & Parge of Amarillo.

The board agreed to allow WT officials to negotiate for matching funds for the construction under the Education Facilities Act of 1964.

West Texas State will receive about $430,000 in new money as provided under a constitutional amendment of 1947.

The board authorized sale of $2,500,000 in tax notes to Republic National Bank of Dallas at 2.96 percent interest.

Henson said West Texas State's share would be placed on deposit with Amarillo National Bank, the school's depository, at 4 percent on the institution's balance.

Henson said constitutional amendment money will be used in construction of the library addition and the vocational building.

Regents gave the green light to university officials to negotiate for purchase of two metal buildings from the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. The buildings presently are situated in New Orleans and if purchased would be transported to Canyon for use as storage buildings.

West Texas State's operating budget of $4,310,154.75 for the 1964-65 school year was approved.

Approval was given to the request of West Texas State for legislative appropriations for the years 1965-66 and 1966-67 totaling $5,924,652.

Approval also was given for a Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum request for appropriations totaling $186,890 for the years 1965-66 and 1966-67.

West Texas State officials are to appear July 24 before a joint hearing by staffs of the legislative budget board, executive budget office and the Texas Commission on Higher Education. The hearing will be held in Austin.

Members of the board sanctioned preparing of plans and specifications for converting the Education Gym at WT into classrooms and offices.

The board also sanctioned an agreement between WT and the city of Canyon on new rates for sewage disposal. Regents voted to extend for another year the cooperative agreement on helium research between West Texas State and the US Bureau of Mines.

The board gave permission for razing of Buffalo Courts and for sale of the school's water tower.

The administration's report to the board noted that the courts were constructed by WPA labor in 1935 and was substantially from the beginning. The building was not occupied last fall.

School officials also received permission for the razing of Terrill Recreation Hall, an old agriculture building on the campus and an underground water storage tank. Removal of these three facilities along with razing of Buffalo Courts will make way for the new Killgore Research Center.

The meeting in Austin was the board's annual get-together. Organization of the board remained unchanged. Newton Crumshaw of Houston was re-elected president and J. C. Kellam of Austin was re-elected vice-president.

It appeared that Clayton Heare of Amarillo might replace Emil Rassman of Midland as chairman of the West Texas State University local committee. No decision was reached on this point Friday of last week.

Car Kills Canyon Tot Wednesday

Elizabeth A. Morris, 7-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Morris, was killed Wednesday morning in downtown Canyon.

The child was hit by a car driven by Mrs. B. A. Leonard, 50, of Canyon at the corner of Fifth Avenue and 16th Street.

Witnesses told police officers the child darted from between two parked cars into the path of the oncoming vehicle.

Mrs. Leonard was driving East on Fifth Avenue at what witnesses said was less than 10 miles an hour.

Elizabeth was rushed to the emergency room of Nebraska Hospital by LaGrone ambulance. Doctors worked for an hour in an attempt to save the child's life.

Dr. Dudley Moore said the girl died of multiple injuries of the head and chest.

The youngster had been visiting in Dan's Fifth Avenue piece good store, which is owned by her grandmother, Mrs. W.E. Parker, only minutes before she was struck.

The accident occurred at 10:27 a.m. Wednesday in front of Dan's Fifth Avenue.

Elizabeth Morris' death was the second in Canyon this year. Joyce Paulette Sullivan, 20, was killed in a two car accident March 6 of this year.

Services were pending Wednesday afternoon at LaGrone Funeral Chapel.

Elizabeth was born Dec. 28, 1956. She was a second grade student at Rex Reeves Elementary School in Canyon. She lived with her parents at 2630 Eleventh Avenue.

Survivors include her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Morris; three brothers, David, James Bynam and Richard; one sister, Mary Angela, and two grandmothers, Mrs. W.E. Parker of Canyon and Mrs. B. L. Morgan of Amarillo.

Sheets Justice At Boys State

Jody Sheets of Canyon was elected associate justice of the Boys State Supreme Court in Austin.

Wheat Yields Higher Than Expected Here

A dejected wheat harvest got under way here during the past week.

Randall County's first load of wheat was brought in to Farmers Elevator here in Canyon about 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon of last week by J. C. McClendon.

The McClendon place is located 4 miles east of Canyon. The load weighed 10,000 pounds. McClendon reported a yield of about 8 bushels per acre. The wheat weighed out 59 pounds per bushel and the moisture content was 15 1/2 on the first load. Moisture content on the average is low, running about 11 to 12.

All the county's elevators were getting wheat this week as drouth-blighted grain was being harvested. Wheat production will be off sharply in the county this year as a result of dry weather.

Consumers Elevator, with locations in Canyon and Ralph Switch, reported wheat weighing 59 to 60 pounds per bushel and said yields are running from 2 to 15 bushels per acre.

An elevator spokesman said the crop looks mighty short but still is better than expected. The grain was grown with only a little more than 2 inches of precipitation on it.

Quality of grain is said to be exceptionally good in spite of dry weather. Conjecture is that long feeder roots put down by plants in search of moisture may have enhanced the quality of the grain.

"One man brought in a load of 10,000 pounds, his entire crop from a 40 acre patch," said an elevator spokesman.

First load of grain taken to Consumers Fuel & Elevator Association here in Canyon was produced by Hosea Foster. Morris Abbott took the first load to the Ralph Switch plant. Clarence Beckman was first with a load to Umbarger Coop Elevator.

Beckman's load of 47 bushels weighed 57 pounds per bushel and had a moisture content of 12.83.

Harvest of irrigated wheat is expected to begin within the next two weeks.

Lion's Club Carnival June 22-27

Lion's Club annual carnival will be held June 22-27 on the mall adjacent to Rex Reeves Elementary School.

"A lot of doin's will be going on," says Floyd Lassiter, carnival chairman. Among activities slated for the carnival are adult and children rides from the Lone Star Amusement Company.

The street circus will be entertainment for Canyon's youngsters and youngsters alike with the Lion's Club operating dunking boards, pitching games, baseball throws, bingo, and fishing for prizes.

Concession stands will be operated by the Boy Scouts and the Randall County Home Demonstration Council according to Lassiter.

The carnival will be open each night of the week from 7 p.m. until 10 p.m. with proceeds from the event being used by the Lion's Club charity fund to promote civic improvements, community betterment, and aid the needy.

Umps Needed

Volunteer umpires are desperately needed for both Babe Ruth League and Little League baseball games, according to league officials.

"You don't have to be material for the big leagues to umpire these games," stressed Babe Ruth League secretary Dr. George DeSchweinitz.

GOP Tops Demos In Balloting

Randall County Republicans cast almost three times as many votes in the Saturday run-off primary as did the county's Democrats.

Republicans had a strength of 1026 votes as compared to only 397 for the Democrats.

Republicans and Democrats favored the candidates which won in their respective statewide races.

For the Republicans George Bush received 672 Randall County votes while Jack Cox received 354.

Bush received 597 at Coronado School, 46 at Rex Reeves Elementary School in Canyon and 29 absentee votes. Cox received 291 votes at Coronado School, 49 at Rex Reeves and 14 absentee votes.

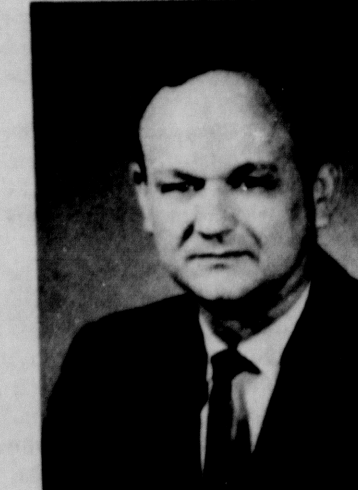

For the Democrats Joe Pool received 236 votes in county-wide balloting while Robert Baker received 141.

Pool received 181 votes at Coronado and Baker 91. Pool and Baker tied at Rex Reeves with 47 votes each. Pool drew 8 absentee ballots while Baker received 3 votes in absentee balloting.

McDonald Is CHS Principal

Hobart McDonald Tuesday night was hired to replace J.E. Miller as Canyon High School principal.

Miller resigned the post a short time ago to become curriculum coordinator for the

Harper In Viet Nam

Major Philip Harper has been assigned to Viet Nam again, according to information reaching friends in Canyon. This is his second tour of duty in that country.

Major Harper was with the military science department at West Texas State before being assigned to a tour of duty in Viet Nam about two years ago. He returned to the States from that assignment about a year ago.

Mrs. Harper was employed as society editor of The Canyon News before moving with her husband and family to Fort Bragg, NC, last year.

1,702 Enroll For Summer

Total registration count at West Texas State University had reached 1,702 by noon Saturday for the first summer semester, according to Dr. James P. Cornette.

The registration count, as compared to last summer's first term total of 1,654, is an increase of approximately four or five percent.

"As of noon Saturday, 1,702 students had actually completed registration and paid their fees," Dr. Cornette said. "Registration officially closed then, but there could be a few more to enroll this week."

Classes will end for the first summer term July 10. Second summer semester will begin July 14 and end August 22.

Rootin-Tootin Time In Badlands Tonight

Fire Truck Bids Get City Okay

City dads accepted a bid for a new fire truck from Stevenson Pontiac Thursday afternoon in a special meeting.

Commissioners accepted the bid which totaled $4,224.09 for a GMC truck. The truck will be taken to every fire, according to Joe Rice, fire captain. Other bids were taken from Jess Ford, Imperial Chevrolet and Myers Farm Implement.

In other action Thursday, dads decided to close two streets in Canyon. Second and 3rd Streets from First Avenue north to Highway 60 were officially closed by the commissioners.

The closing will effect only five blocks south of the railroad track on 2nd and 3rd Streets.

Dewey Bryant, city manager was authorized to prepare plans and specifications and take bids for furnishing and installing water and sewer extensions in Pioneer Estates and Hidden Valley Addition.

Bryant was also authorized by the commission to take bids for the purchase of a new pickup for the water and sewer department.

M. L. Sherrod was appointed to the tax equalization board and Jim Christopher will serve as alternate. Other members of the board are Bill Davis and M. B. Sims.

Commissioners also voted to provide water to Tom Brasher Oil Company. Brasher asked the city to provide the water service to his company, which will be located outside the west city limits.

Water Use Mounts With Heat Here

Canyon is lapping up water like a sponge.

City officials said water consumers used 2,073,200 gallons Monday as compared to 792,700 June 8, 1963.

M. B. Measamer, who keeps weather records at West Texas State University, said temperatures soared to 98 degrees Saturday and Sunday and hovered at 95 degrees Monday.

Sun temperature Tuesday was 110 degrees at 3 o'clock in the afternoon in downtown Canyon.

In the meantime, farmers and ranchers hoped in vain for rain as hot winds continued to sear grass and crops.

the Panhandle will appear in the western comedy-musical with an added 70 persons from Albany.

Robert Nail, author-producer director, said the show will last approximately two hours, including the intermission.

Dr. and Mrs. William A. Moore of Canyon will narrate the show. Jearl Nichols, West Texas State University student, will sing two lead songs during the production.

Other persons from Canyon will appear throughout the show in various singing and acting scenes.

Nail has been in the Panhandle for almost a month preparing the theater area for the production.

The Kwahadis Boy Scout Indians of Amarillo will perform during the show, and the Will Rogers Range Riders of Amarillo and the Randall County Sheriff's Posse will appear in the musical.

Members from local service clubs, women's clubs, Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, West Texas State University, Amarillo College, the Texas Highway Patrol and the Palo Duro Park staff will be on hand for final preparations for the spectacular.

Approximately 200 persons from Albany are expected during the weekend show with persons from the Panhandle filling the rest of the theater. Reservations for the show can be made at the Panhandle Heritage Foundation office at 415 16th Street in Canyon. Chair seats are $4, other seats are $2.50.

Dress rehearsal was held Wednesday night in the Palo Duro theater. Rehearsals of individual scenes and acts have been held throughout the past two weeks in the Branding Iron Theater.

One song was written for Canyon and will be sung in the final scenes of the first section of the show. "Canyon Courtin'" was written as a local song and will be one of 25 musicals during the show.

Memorial names will be on display on the back wall of the amphitheater during the three night showing.

Mrs. Ples Harper, president of the foundation, said the memorials will be in ink so donors may check for corrections and additions.

"We are listing the memorials as they will be permanently marked, but doing it in ink so that people may check them when they come to see Fandangle," she explained.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

One of the most interesting people we've run into at meetings of the board of regents is Dr. James Gee, president of East Texas State College at Commerce.

Dr. Gee was an officer in both world wars. His most colorful service was under General George (Blood and Guts) Patton in Europe.

Dr. Gee was a colonel and the general's operations officer. He told us last week that he used to find it necessary to move the headquarters outfit as often as three times a day when Patton was racing through France.

Dr. Gee still cherishes the memory of Patton. He made funeral arrangements for the general after Patton was fatally injured in a jeep accident in Luxembourg after the war.

"This is a hell of a way for a man like me to die," Gee quotes the general as having said after the accident.

General Patton asked his operations officer to see to his burial among the men. This Dr. Gee did. However, the millions of Europeans who revere his memory for his having liberated them from Hitler, trampled down other nearby graves. It was necessary to move the general's resting place to a more secluded part of the cemetery.

But Blood and Guts, the greatest armor man in history with the possible exception of his chief opponent—Erwin Rommel—lies among the men he had commanded. His last wish was granted.

Dr. Gee has a soldierly bearing. His back is ramrod straight and so is his talk. He is as salty as you would expect a tank man to be, one who had been close to Patton at that.

The board of regents of Texas State Teachers Colleges spent a comparatively long time in closed session during the June meeting just completed in Austin.

The board talked to Dr. Arleigh Templeton, new president of Sam Houston State, and considered an item of business from West Texas State University while in closed session.

A booklet containing WT's report to the board was given to us as the body of the report was being presented. Item number nine had been clipped neatly from the booklet.

When we returned to Canyon we contacted the West Texas State information department. Number nine also had been clipped from the board meeting report given to that department.

What is item number nine? We haven't the foggiest.

We were perplexed. We have covered board meetings for almost a year now. We think members of the board will agree that we have cooperated with their every request.

We think unexplained closed meetings of boards handling tax money are bad. They contravene the public's right to know.

We traveled a thousand miles to be the only newspaperman hand for the annual meeting of a board which is responsible for handling millions of dollars a year of your money. The same board is ultimately responsible for the welfare of thousands on thousands of your children.

For the time being, item number nine is a gap in our report to you. We attend the meeting as your agent.

We stayed at the Driskill Hotel. The board meeting was held right there in the hotel and while it was in progress a meeting of Negro real estate brokers was being held just down the hall. Three hundred people attended the brokers meeting. Everything appeared quiet and orderly.

The Driskill dining room is integrated. Several Negro couples are there. They were quiet and mannerly. There was no hint of an incident. Waiters and other guest treated the Negro diners just like any other people would be treated.

We understand that in spite of this, there is more race trouble brewing in the Lone Star capitol. . . .

It would be hard for a newspaperman to go around the state or the country, for that matter, incognito.

We climbed aboard a Braniff turbo-jet en route to Austin Thursday. On the same plane were folks we know. They included General Dwight D. Eisenhower, Paul Timmons of the Amarillo Globe-Times and Bob Mills of McCormick Advertising in Amarillo.

When we arrived in Dallas we met Harold Hudson of the Ochiltree County Herald, Perryton, in the air terminal.

Friday morning we breakfasted at the Driskill with Bill Berger, Hondo, president of the Texas Press Association.

As we were about to board a plane at Bergstrom for our return trip, we ran into Irby Carruth who used to live here in Canyon. He was superintendent of Canyon schools at one time and now holds a similar position with the Austin school system.

Mrs. Carruth was with him. She is a native of Canyon and is the former Tip Bradford of this community. She still has lots of friends and relatives—including her mother—here in Canyon.

We touched down at Dallas on the return trip long enough to pick up Don Curphey, an advertising agency representative with whom we have been acquainted for years. . . .

This week we look back on an even dozen years as a publisher and almost a score as a reporter.

Across the ink spattered years we've learned a little about human nature.

Man wants to be good. He wants to stand self-justified and to be liked by those around him. Self-justification often is more important to him than the esteem of his fellowman.

It is a rare man who is able to reveal his inner self to another even if he desired. Few desire to reveal themselves.

Three basic facts of life stand out in bold relief against our years with the quill. They are Omnipotent God, the folly of mankind and the importance of involvement.

The delicate balance of life on this planet, where extermination of a single species of lowly bacteria could be life's undoing, is proof enough to us that Mighty Deity first gave breath and set the immutable laws of nature in motion.

Although man whirls about his planet in ninety minutes and has literally reached for the stars, there is ample proof that he does not understand his place in the universe as well as did Confucius in the golden era of the Chinese empire. This alone is testimony of the folly of man who has confused acquiring of things with civilization. Involvement is the heady wine of being a part of things. It is the pure joy of participating without counting the cost. Those who have not tasted this cup have not lived. It is truly the chalice of the gods.

Canyon Team

Loses First Legion Game

Canyon's American Legion baseball team began summer schedule action with games Saturday and Sunday.

Canyon traveled to Pampa Saturday in a 2 p.m. game, losing 12-2. Winning pitcher was Hammons for Pampa; Gary Culp was on the mound for Canyon. Canyon totaled 7 hits 7 errors, while Pampa had 8 hits 1 error.

In Sunday afternoon play Dumas scored a win over Canyon 6-0 in a game played in Canyon. Robbins was the winning pitcher and Tom Lair was losing pitcher. Canyon had 2 hits and 7 errors and Dumas had 5 hits and 1 error.

Canyon was scheduled to meet Perryton yesterday in a 7:30 game here. Next baseball tilt is Sunday at Vega, 2:30 p.m. Wednesday night Canyon will host Vega at 7:30 p.m.

Priscilla Club Luncheon Held

The annual Priscilla Club luncheon was held last Wednesday in the Tom Knighton home.

Guests were served a fried chicken dinner with all of the trimmings. Decorations for the event featured bouquets of summer flowers.

Co-hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. R. A. Bellah, Mrs. S. B. Louder, Mrs. E. D. Walker and Mrs. Evelyn Moore.

Others in attendance were Mrs. E. R. Cleavinger, Mrs. Bill Crow, Mrs. J. M. Daugherty, Mrs. Dewey Foster, Mrs. R. A. Hodges, Mrs. Claude Boatman, Mrs. Joe Frank, Mrs. Hud Prichard, Mrs. C. M. Presley, Mrs. H. M. Stokes, Mrs. Mary Bonnie, and Mrs. T. S. Stevenson, Sr.

Mrs. Bradford Injured In Fall

Mrs. Henry Bradford, 94 years old, area pioneer suffered a hip fracture in a fall at her home Monday night.

Mrs. Bradford slipped and fell on the back step of her home about 6:30 o'clock. She is under treatment in Neblett Hospital.

I donned my bathing suit Sunday and traipsed to the good ole swimming hole for a quick dip and an hour or so of sun.

The water was cold and the sun hot, and I relaxed with the thought of getting my first bit of tan in several years.

Ann Lander, the University of Oklahoma student who began working for the Canyon News last week as a summer trainee, decided to battle the sun, heat and wind and joined me.

For about an hour we sat on the side of the pool soaking in the heat alternating with a cold dip in the nearby water.

Not understanding that Ann was a pro at this sunbathing business, I sat right along side of her getting just as much sun and enjoying it less the longer I sat there.

Finally, we called it quits and hit a hot trail to the house.

Within a few minutes I realized my legs and back were going to look like a ripe tomato.

And what do you do with a sunburn?

This is where I learned about friends.

Everyone has a different idea as to the best thing for a burn, and most of them involve at least three to four hours of preparation.

I began to ask around as to a quick remedy for a awful scorch. The first one I ran into was to soak myself in bacon grease. Well, that didn't seem the thing to do, so I jumped into a tub of hot water and vinegar. I wouldn't bet that it helped my burn, but the odor certainly should have slowed its progress.

Then someone mentioned to open a can of milk and bath myself in that. Supposedly the milk would bring the heat out, the vinegar keeps the heat in. Now they tell me.

Then Ann suggested dissolving an aspirin on a cloth and letting it soak slowly into the skin. Again this seemed like a long way to the problem, so I dropped that idea.

After three days of misery and fruitless attempts, I followed a bit of advice I got the first day: take an aspirin and wait three days.

Sure enough, that seems to be the best thing to do, now I'm waiting for a nice peeling and the whole thing over again.

Ann and I are rooming together for the summer, and I'm discovering what it is like to live with someone with a famous name.

Of all the jokes and cracks made about her advice and lack of advice, one of the best came from Jerry LaGrone.

Ann is working on the historical edition and called Jerry about a story. She left a message for him to call when he came in.

In a few minutes Jerry called back and asked for an Ann Lander.

Well, Ann sweetly answered the phone and Jerry, rather confused, said, "What exactly do you want? That I know of, I don't have any personal problems."

Hosea Foster thought there was something strange when he got a note to call Ann. He thought Troy was pulling a joke on him, and he wanted to be prepared for the worst. He was a little shocked when he bravely asked for Miss Lander and he really got her on the phone.

Ann says she even has trouble remembering her real name. The famous column writer spells her last name Lander. Ann is asked so many times if it is Lander or Landers, she forgets which one it actually is.

Plans were also discussed for the fall style show which will be held in early September.

Attending the called meeting were Mesdames Bob Brotherton, Bob Henry, Allen Simpson, Gene Golsen, Bob Glazner, Speck Benham, Dan Wadley, Bob Sims, J. Mack White, Wayne Turley, Jack Berry, Elmer Clement and Charles Peckenpaugh.

Going somewhere? Or been? The Canyon News wants to know about it--and so do its readers.

Roy Price Has Antique Clocks

BY ANN LANDER

"I learned to fix clocks and watches the hard way--by doing it," said Roy Price owner of Price's Grocery Store.

"When it comes to the technical terms involved in fixing watches I'm at a loss, but you give me one and I can fix it for you," he said. Since Price's store is directly across the street from the junior high school, he does a booming business, especially in the candy and cokes department. However, after looking around, the first question is what kind of a store is it.

In every corner of the store there is some kind of time piece. It could be anything from a wrist watch to a grandfather clock, but the odds are that it runs perfectly and is at least 50 years old.

"I can't remember just exactly when I got interested in clocks," Price said. "I just can't remember when I wasn't. I actively started collecting them when I got out of the service after World War I."

Price started out by teaching school at the age of 16 in Denton, and then at the age of 17 was teaching at North Texas State Normal there. He quit the teaching profession he said, "when they took the whip away from the teachers and let the students have their freedom."

Although Price may talk rough to his younger set of customers who come traipsing through his store for cold drinks and pop-sicles, they always come back for more, and for an occasional lesson on the inner workings of a 75 year old clock.

"I always have at least 100 clocks on hand," Price said. "In some of the older ones the cabinets were ruined so I took out the movements and made new cabinets for them. I made 15 grandfather clocks this way one summer and sold all but one of them."

One of Price's prize possessions is a clock made about 175 years ago that has a movement made entirely of wood. "This piece ran perfectly for 156 years but in 1946 when I got it," Price said, "I took it apart so that people who came to see my collection could look inside and see the different wooden pieces. It's still in good running order though, and all I have to do is put the back on it and it will run just as good as new."

Price has another clock that is supposed to be more than 200 years old. "This one," he said, "was made in Germany. My son, who's in Heidelberg right now sent it to me."

Price also has a collection of more than 135 watches, all of which are classified as antiques. Most of the watches he acquired while he had his own watch repair shop in Ravenna.

"I never have really had much interest in doing just one thing at a time," he said. "When I lived in Ravenna I worked as railroad inspector, taught at the high school, and had my own watch repair shop with seven employees."

"I came to Canyon in 1946 when I got out of the Veterans Hospital in Amarillo," Price said. "I'd been running the PX there for four years when I decided to come down here." Price has his watch-makers bench in the store and spends much of his free time working on his collection. "I'm planning to close out the grocery pretty soon," Price said, "and open the place up as a museum. Then I'll be able to get all my collection of clocks together and of course I'll add my other antiques to it..."

Kitty Kay Morris Exchanges Nuptial Vows In Plainview

Marriage vows for Miss Kitty Kay Morris and Richard Jeffrey Umstot were solemnized in a double ring ceremony last Friday evening at the College Heights Baptist Church in Plainview.

Officiating at the ceremony was James Dunn, director of the Baptist Student Union at West Texas State University. Appropriate nuptial selections were presented at the organ by Miss Anita Wimberley of Canyon. Miss Wimberley also accompanied the vocalist, Peggy Byers of Houston, Idaho, as she sang vocal selections "One Hand, One Heart," "With This Ring I Thee Wed," and the "Wedding Prayer."

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Harp E. Morris of Plainview and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wayne Umstot of Odessa. Nuptial vows were read before an archway decorated with greenery and flanked with baskets of yellow gladioli and mums. The altar was draped with garlands of flowers.

Escorted and given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a formal floor-length gown of white peau de soie styled with a sweetheart neckline. The fitted sleeves extended to the wrist where they terminated in petal points. The sheath skirt was complemented with a lace front panel beaded with tiny cultured pearls and an overskirt of peau de soie. Matching tiny covered buttons extended from the back neck to waistline and as sleeve closing from the elbow to wrist.

Her bridal veil of silk illusion was held by a tiara of pearls. She carried a bouquet of tiny yellow roses in a cascade arrangement.

As a symbol of good luck, the bride wore a six-pence in her shoe which was given to her by Mrs. Alois Alexander. A lace trimmed handkerchief which was given to the bride's mother on her 18th birthday was carried as "something old." The bridegroom's gift, a white leather Bible, was carried as "something new." "Something borrowed" was a set of cultured pearls borrowed from Doris March of Houston, a cousin of the bride. For "something blue" the bride wore a blue garter given to her by the maid of honor.

A long stemmed yellow rose was presented by the bride to her mother as she approached the altar. After the ceremony, the bride presented the groom's mother with a long stemmed yellow rose.

Identical dresses of canary yellow satin styled with a sweetheart neckline and short cap sleeves were worn by the bridal attendants. Their ensembles were completed with veils of circular silk illusion caught to a bow of matching yellow satin. Each carried cascade bouquets of yellow baby roses with long streamers of yellow satin ribbon. Accessories of yellow with wrist length white gloves completed the honor attendant's attire.

Cecelia Gay Morris served as her sister's maid of honor. Sherry Ann Umstot, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. Sharon Yocum presided at the bride's book as guests entered the church.

Honor attendants for the bridegroom were Richard Carter of Canyon as best man and Dale Henry, Canyon, as groomsmen. Ushers for the ceremony were W. C. Duke of Midland and William F. Harlow of Canyon.

The couple was honored with a reception in the church parlor after the wedding ceremony. Hostesses for the occasion were sisters and sisters-in-law of the bride. Vicki Morris and Linda Ellis were junior hostesses for the reception.

The bride's chosen colors of yellow and white were carried out in the reception decor with a white linen table cloth covering the refreshment table with the yellow rose bouquets of the bridal attendants forming the bouquet. The bouquets were arranged around the base of a gold candelabrum. For a wedding trip to Red River, New Mexico, the bride was attired in an aqua tweed suit styled with a sleeveless jacket and an aqua crepe blouse. Toffee toned accessories

Mrs. D.E. Middleton Honoree At Shower

A bridal tea and shower honoring Mrs. Don Ed Middleton, the former Jimmie Estelle Davis of Hereford, was given in the home of Mrs. Merle McFarland at Happy.

The social event was staged from 3-5 p.m. Thursday, June 4, with guests being received by the hostess, Mrs. McFarland; Mrs. Willard V. Middleton, mother of the bridegroom; the honoree, Mrs. Middleton; and the bride's mother, Mrs. Harley Davis of Hereford.

Presiding at the bride's book was Miss Jan Middleton, sister of the bridegroom.

Miss Loretta Higgins and Mrs. Jimmie Collier, sister of the bride, presided at the refreshment table as guests were served punch and individual cakes decorated with blue wedding bells.

A white imported linen cutwork cloth covered the serving table which was centered with large white wedding bells amid an arrangement of white gladioli, white chrysanthemums and blue ribbon bows. Crystal and silver appointments complemented the table decor.

Approximately 60 guests were registered for the occasion. Out of town guests attending were Mesdames Helen Davis, A. H. Davis, Hereford; Mary Schofield, Ruth Schofield, Amarillo; Ira Scott, Jimmie Collier, Miss Loretta Higgins, Edwin Morrison, Hereford; Ray Joe Riley, Hart; Gordon Thompson, Lucille Middleton, Lubbock; and Flora Middleton of Canyon, the bridegroom's grandmother.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Eddie Walters, Mrs. Evans Holland, Mrs. John F. Toles, Mrs. Edgar Robinson, Mrs. Foster Harmon, Mrs. Babe Walbert, Mrs. Dale Whitlow, Mrs. Bruce Fields, Mrs. Cone Johnson, Mrs. Simon Elliott, Mrs. Harry Hardaway, Mrs. Glen Robinson, Mrs. Virgil Toles, Mrs. Richard Vernon, Mrs. Bill Penn, Mrs. Ed Cabe, Mrs. S. N. Wright, Mrs. D. L. Allison, Mrs. Cehe Shipman and Mrs. Merle McFarland.

Miss Allmon Plans Rites In August

The engagement and approaching marriage of Carol Ann Allmon to Donald Powell Anderson is being announced by the bride's mother, Mrs. Oneta Allmon.

Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Vernon J. Anderson of Los Angeles.

Marriage vows will be exchanged August 28 in Portuguese Bend, California. The bride-elect attended West Texas State University where she was a member of Alpha Delta Pi social sorority. She graduated from Claude High School.

The prospective bridegroom is a senior student at the University of California where he is a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

Grand Jury Meet Held

Kandall County grand jury was in session here Wednesday. Assistant Criminal District Attorney George Dowlen said six cases were due for consideration.

No grand jury report had been made at press time Wednesday.

Society Meets In Umbarger

The annual communion supper for St. Mary's Altar Society was held June 2 immediately following Holy Mass in Umbarger.

Seven new members were received by the Christian Mother's Society including Mesdames John C. Beckman, Anton Grotegut, Larry Wieck, Willie Artho, Rudolph Friemel, Joe Grotegut and A. C. Evers.

Following a supper, at which 48 members were present, the regular monthly meeting was held. Monsignor Boseman spoke on 'Vocations' at the program with a short reading on St. John the Baptist, whose feast day will be celebrated June 24.

Miss Ball Marries In Church Rites

The Holy Family Catholic Church of Nazareth was the scene for the May 15 wedding of Miss Odette Eileen Ball and Dutch Kilgore Robison.

Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Florence Ball of Nazareth and her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ed Robison of Claude.

A graduate of West Texas State University, the bride has been employed with the Amarillo Public School System for the past three years. Mr. Robison attended WTSU and is engaged in farming west of Claude. He is associated with Robison Insulating Company in Amarillo.

Rev. Wilmer Riechel officiated at the double ring ceremony with the organist, Mrs. John Slavik of Nazareth, presenting appropriate nuptial selections. Vocal compositions were presented by Mrs. Herman Acker.

Honor attendants for the couple were Miss Pat Ball of Lubbock as maid of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Sharolyn Ball and Valerie Ball, both of Nazareth. Twila Ball and Renee Ball were flower girls and Kirk Ball was ringbearer.

Sherwood Luttrell of Claude was best man. Groomsmen were George Ball of Nazareth and Joe Lee Pafford, ushering were Kenneth Dye of Claude, Bill Robison, John Robison and Bill Dye.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an original peau de sole gown fashioned with portrait collar and petal point sleeves. Appliques of hand clipped Alencon lace enhanced the squared court train. She wore a mantilla of matching lace accented with re-embroidered appliques and pearls. A white prayer book was centered with a bouquet of white gardenias and stephanotis.

Reception guests attended a buffet supper in the Nazareth Community Hall following the ceremony.

Engagement Announced August Rites

James W. Merry, a graduate of West Texas State University and former student instructor, will marry Miss Barbara Louise McNutt in nuptial ceremonies planned for August 18.

The engagement and approaching marriage are being announced by parents of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Cecil E. McNutt of Amarillo. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Merry of Amarillo are parents of the prospective bridegroom who plans to enter the field of Christian education.

They were joined at Odessa by Mrs. Read's sister, Anita Paris and daughters, from Hobbs, New Mexico.

Research scientist William H. Matthews III holds one of the maps he is working with to help visitors to Palo Duro State Park find geological points of interest. Matthews has spent the past two weeks in Canyon, climaxing a year's survey for a guidebook for the park.

Visiting Research Scientist Praises Canyon, P-P Museum

BY LYNZA CARADINE

Drawing maps, doing photography work and climbing among the rocks of Palo Duro Canyon has been a two-week assignment for research scientist William H. Matthews III. Matthews, on appointment at the Bureau of Economic Geology of the University of Texas, is making a geological survey of the canyons. The information he gathers will later be published in a guidebook titled "The Geological Story of Palo Duro Canyon," designed to promote the canyons as a tourist attraction.

"Tourists come to Palo Duro because it is a camping place listed in the camping guide," Matthews said. "They are amazed to discover what an interesting place the canyon really is."

"During my stay in the park I have talked to visitors from Texas and all over the United States. I didn't tell them what I was doing--I was just another sunburned character stumbling through the rocks," he laughed. Matthews, who is the professor of geology at Lamar State College of Technology during fall and spring terms, spends his summer months doing research projects for national and state parks. "I enjoy the work because it gives me a different outlook on life. It is a challenge to take technical geology and put it in layman terms."

Working to build the tourist attraction of Palo Duro Canyon has been more than a two-week project, Matthews said. "Jerry Tschauner, park manager, and the geology department at West Texas State University, have been working with me on and off over the past year. Jack Hughes, head of the geology department, and Jay Daniel Powell (geology professor), have both been very helpful to me."

Matthews does all his photography work and darkroom work, in addition to drawing a map of the canyons which will be numbered to correspond with pictures in the guidebook and numbered stakes to be placed at focal points in the canyon area.

"I want to present a panoramic view of the canyon and have it labeled so that a person can be his own guide. I knew the park before I came here and knew what to look for and still had difficulty finding some of its features," he said.

"It is very unusual to find a canyon like this located in the plains. Palo Duro is large, colorful, and easily accessible; there are others similar to it in the Big Bend country."

"The park service is starting an interpretation program. People need to know about things like the Spanish Skirts (a rock formation) and how they got to be there."

"I have been in Canyon for two weeks, and I'm afraid I have been very impatient at times with the townspeople. The people are very friendly and nice--and cooperative--but they are not taking an interest in developing the canyon. Most of the people describe it as "a hole in the ground with rattlesnakes."

"I have no royalties in the guidebook to be published, and nothing to gain from promoting the park. I just want to see that Canyon gets the attention it is due."

"Canyon has a good three months industry sitting just outside the town. What could be money in people's pockets is money out of it. My main criticism is that it needs to be promoted and needs more interpretation."

What steps could Canyon residents take to promote the park? Matthews offered three suggestions.

First, they should publicize Palo Duro Canyon by every means possible--with the first step construction signs on the Lubbock and Amarillo highways leading into Canyon.

In the second place, the people should learn something about the canyon and what it has to offer the visitors. And thirdly, the townspeople should take pride in it and recommend it as an attraction to tourists and other people passing through the area.

"Of course, some people discover it in spite of other people," Matthews said, smiling. "Canyon has a nice double-barreled attraction here with both the canyon and Panhandle Plains Historical Museum."

Matthews, whose work ends here today, Thursday complimented the work of the WTSU geology club, and department and other groups in their promotion of the park.

"I would like to thank the geology department, park service and all those who have helped me. The University geology group has done an excellent job to promote the park, and of course, the museum people deserve praise."

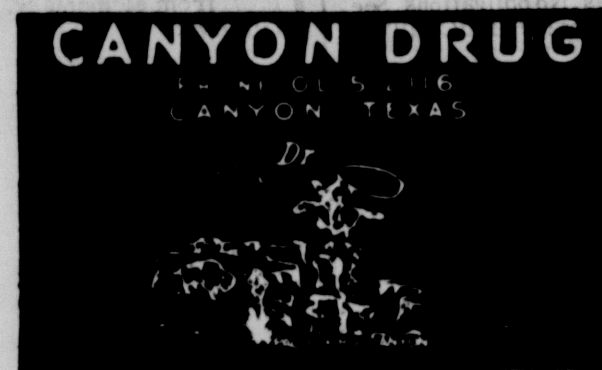

Matthews will return to Texas as University to continue work

MRS. VAN SCHICKEDANZ shares her favorite White Bread recipe with our readers this week. Mrs. Schickedanz, daughter of a German family, likes to cook in the traditional style "a pinch of this, a dab of that, and stir till it looks right." Variations of the yeast dough may be used in Bieroch or Coffee Cake that she also lists for readers to use this week.

Mrs. Van Schickedanz Gives Three Recipes

BY LORENA MILLER

Mrs. Van Schickedanz, the daughter of a German family, shares her family's favorite White Bread recipe with our readers this week.

Mrs. Schickedanz also lists Bieroch and Coffee Cake as family diversions made with the yeast dough.

The former Miss Laurine Howeller was born at Shattuck, Oklahoma and became the bride of Van Schickedanz in 1942 at Woodward, Oklahoma.

"He was soon called to serve with the Air Force," said Mrs. Schickedanz of World War II. During his three year stint with the Air Force, Schickedanz served as a link training instructor teaching instrument flying to pilots.

The couple farmed in Oklahoma for a number of years near Gage, later moving to Panhandle where he was employed with Phillips Oil Company. The family moved to Canyon in May 1962 and established their home at 2600 8th Avenue. January of this year they purchased their present three bedroom home at 518 West Eleventh Avenue in Canyon.

Active church workers at the First Baptist Church, Mrs. Schickedanz is superintendent of Primary I and her husband serves as assistant superintendent of Adult I Department. The couple's six children have all been active in church work including the junior choir, G.A.'s, R.A.'s and Sunbeams.

Their oldest son, Wayne, graduated from Panhandle High School and attended West Texas State University. He is married to the former Miss Linda Gazzaway of Canyon and the couple resides here.

Dean will be a senior at Canyon High School this fall. He is currently on a west coast tour with the choir of the First Baptist Church of Canyon and Hereford. Dean participates in band and choir at the high school.

Industrial Arts is a favorite study of Dean's and he took an excellent scoring for the recent Industrial Arts Club Fair at WTSU with a matching set of tables which he made under the supervision of Steve Burgess, Industrial Arts instructor.

Kay, the oldest daughter, will be a sophomore next fall. She is active in the church choir, high school band, home economics, F.H.A. and participates in athletics at the high school.

A seventh grade student, Frank Leon, enjoys athletics. He participated in Kids Inc. football and is presently playing with the Minor League Phillies.

His younger brother, Roy, a third grade student, serves as bathboy for the Phillies.

Reading is the favorite past time of Lea Ann, fifth grade, who is reported to be a good student in her classes and planning to enroll in the summer reading club at the City-County Library.

Aside from duties of the home, Mrs. Schickedanz is employed with the cafeteria staff at Rex Reeves Elementary School.

"Sewing is my main hobby," she stated. Mrs. Schickedanz makes most of the clothing for her family as well as baking bread in the traditional German style "a pinch, a dab, and a stir."

"I was baking bread for the family by the time I was about 10 or 11, because my mother was often sickly and it was too far to go to the store for a loaf of bread," relates Mrs. Schickedanz.

Her recipe and variations follow:

WHITE BREAD

2 1/2 cups potato water (1 medium potato, boiled and mashed in water)

Cool to lukewarm and add:
4 Tbsp. sugar
3 Tbsp. lard
1 pkg. dry yeast

Stir until yeast is dissolved, allow to set five minutes then add:

1 Tbsp. salt
5-6 cups flour

Blend dry ingredients gradually until the dough tends to stick to sides of bowl. Knead lightly on floured board until smooth and elastic, place in bowl and let rise about 45 minutes. Punch dough down and allow to rise 35 minutes. Shape into loaves or rolls and place in greased pan.

Allow to rise about one hour in warm place and bake at 400 degrees for 30 minutes, until rolls pull away from pan edge. Yield 2 loaves, or 1 pan rolls and loaf. Can also be used for cinnamon rolls.

COFFEE CAKE

Take 1/3 of dough batter and flatten into a greased pan, allow to rise for one hour. Top with mixture of:
1/2 cup flour
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg
1/2 cup canned milk
3 Tbsp. melted butter

Spread over dough the blended ingredients and sprinkle top with 3 Tbsp. sugar and cinnamon.

Make butter crumbs of 4 Tbsp. butter, 1 Tbsp. sugar and enough flour to make crumbly. Sprinkle over top of risen dough. Bake at 400 degrees for 20-30 minutes. Excellent as coffee roll dessert or breakfast rolls.

BIEROCH

1 med. head cabbage, diced fine
2 small onions, diced
2 lb. hamburger meat
1/2 cup shortening

Combine in large pan and simmer slowly for 30 minutes.

Meanwhile roll yeast bread dough to 1/4 inch thickness, cut in six inch squares. Place large spoonful of hot meat mixture in center of each dough square.

Fold edges of dough together pinch to seal. Place in greased pan and let rise about 10 minutes. Bake at 400 degrees for 20 minutes.

"Bieroch is a one dish meal that we like with a watermelon cube salad, or other fresh vegetables," stated Mrs. Schickedanz.

Mrs. H.C. Hudson Home From Trip

Mrs. H. C. Hudson has returned from Borger where she visited in the home of her son, H.C. Hudson, Jr. and family.

During her visit, Mrs. Hudson attended the high school graduation of her grandson, Dean Allen Hudson, who was rated among the top ten of the 239 graduating seniors.

A key club scholarship was presented to Dean, who served the club as president during the past year. He was named outstanding boy for the 1963-64 school term and has been active in the choir, MYF and other activities of the Wesley Methodist Church of Borger.

He is a nephew of Mrs. Earline Moreman of Canyon.

Joe Barrett Returns To MacDill AFB

Staff Sergeant Joe H. Barrett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Noah E. Barrett of Happy, has returned to his U. S. Air Force Tactical Air Command (TAC) unit at MacDill AFB, Fla., after participating in Exercise Desert Strike conducted by the U.S. Strike Command in the southwestern states.

Sergeant Barrett, an aircraft maintenance technician, and other members of TAC's jet fighter, reconnaissance, air assault and support units provided fire power and other tactical air support for U. S. Army battle-field troops participating in the exercise.

The sergeant is a graduate of Happy High School. His wife, Betty, is the daughter of Mrs. Rosey Miller of 1600 Fifth St., Canyon, Texas.

First Wheat Load

J. C. McCLENDON brought in the first load of wheat last week in Randall County. McClendon, who farms east of Canyon, brought 10,000 pounds to Farmers Elevator last Wednesday afternoon. The first load measured 59 pounds per bushel, and tested 15 1/2 moisture content.

Canyon Man's Father Dies

Funeral services for W. A. Graham of Amarillo, father of Walter Graham, were held Tuesday morning in Amarillo.

Mr. Graham, 97 years old, retired rancher and land owner, died Saturday.

Officiating at the funeral were Dr. Jordan Grooms, pastor of Polk Street Methodist Church and Rev. Strauss Atkinson, pastor of First Baptist Church of Canyon.

Interment was in Llano Mausoleum.

Pallbearers were Denton Smith, Leon Middleton, C. W. Lyle, Dennis Reynolds, Frank Kimbrough and Archie Castleberry.

Mr. Graham was a pioneer of the Panhandle. He was born Sept. 21, 1868, in Tennessee and moved to the Claude area when he was 21 years old.

He brought his widowed mother, his sister and several brothers to live on the Mulberry Flats as the Claude community was known as then. He planted the first Kaffir corn in Armstrong county.

Mr. Graham had extensive holdings of wheat and pasture lands in the Happy, Silverton and Quitaque areas.

Cattle raised on Graham land are known throughout the country for their quality and fine blood lines.

Survivors other than Walter Graham, include two other sons, Clarence of Amarillo and M.A. of Silverton; a daughter, Miss Lella Graham of Amarillo and nine grandchildren.

Thelma Westfall, right, and Norman Tucek were awarded the Bowler of the Year trophies Friday night at the annual bowling banquet. Both have been active in bowling activities throughout the year. Eugene Bonds and Liz Ziegler, last year's winners of the special award, presented the trophies.

Honor Top Bowlers At Annual Banquet

Thelma Westfall and Norman Tucek were named "Bowlers of the Year" at last Friday night's sponsor appreciation banquet which was held in the American Legion Hall.

The two outstanding bowlers were presented with trophies during the awards program by last year's winners of the honor, Eugene Bonds and Liz Ziegler.

Eddie Knowles, manager of the Canyon Bowl, was master of ceremonies for the banquet and awards program with trophies being awarded to outstanding members of various teams and team sponsor trophies to business establishments which sponsored the top league teams.

Bill's Barber Shop team took the first place trophy in the Business Men's League with LaGrone's Funeral Chapel winning second and Canyon News first consolation. Individual trophies were presented in the league to John Jennings, high game, and Norman Tucek, high series.

Jettie Bond was named "queen" for the Twilight League with Buffalo Food and Drug taking the first place trophy in the league. Bellah's Super Market took second in the league and individual trophies went to Dottie Chance, high series, and Penny Bryan, high game.

The first place trophy in the Mixed Up Couples League went to Griffin Truck Stop with Vance vices to the schools of Oberlin organizing and administering libraries in two elementary schools. The Chamber of Commerce selected her as "Man of the Year" in 1962 for her unusual contribution.

Present day citizens of Canyon who studied with Miss Haines are Dr. Ruth Lowes, Miss Mae Simmons, and Mrs. E. A. Michael.

Recent guests in the Arvin Triplett home have been Mrs. Jerry Woods and Lisa of Pampa, Johnnie Leslie, Sharon, Jeanette and Mickey Ely, all of Amarillo.

Hall Sporting Goods taking second. High game honors went to Sandie Turner and Norman Tucek with 202 and 258 respectively. High series honors for the league were won by Ret Kamp and Burl Southern. Most improved bowlers of the league were Gay Steinberger and Eugene Bonds.

Mrs. Bobbie Dowd was named personality queen for the Koffee Kup league with the Roarin' 30's taking first place and the Slip Ups taking second place league honors. Named as most improved bowler was Ann Whiting, Ann Prichard took high series honors and Mary Bonds took high game.

Sternberg Lumber Company was first place team in the Canyon City League with Randall County Abstract taking the second place trophy. Individual trophies went to Burl Southern, high game; Norman Tucek, high series; Jackie Clifton, most improved bowler; and Dale Russell, league bowler of the year.

In the couple's Starlight League, Griffin Auto Parts took the first place trophy. Second place went to Canyon Glass and Trim with Canyon Bowl and Grill receiving a first consolation trophy. Individual honors in the league went to Frank O'Don-ald and Carol Schrib for high series; Jim Simon and Sue Anderson for high game; and Johnny Welch and Lena Lewis most improved bowlers.

Winners in the spring "city tourney" were Bellah's in the women's league and White's Auto in the men's division. Top bowlers in all events of the city tourney were Mary Cheatham and Tommy Hunter.

Hill Rabbits Capture Top Ribbons In Show

W. E. Hill, local rabbit breeder, captured numerous top ratings with the 20 rabbits which he entered in last weekend's two day show at the Rabbit Building of the Tri-State Fair Grounds in Amarillo.

The Texas Panhandle Rabbit Breeder's Association sponsored the show which included a picnic barbecue of rabbit and red beans to breeders and guests in the park just west of the exhibit building Saturday evening.

W. E. Hill had top place rabbits in the breed divisions of New Zealand White, New Zealand Red, White Satin, Red Satin, and Californians.

Other wins for Canyon's entrants were Hill's wife, Jim Ada, with a first place junior doe, and a second place junior buck.

Mike Wilson, son of the Bill Wilsons, showed New Zealand

Whites to take a third for pre-junior buck, fourths for a 6-8 doe and buck and a fifth for a pre-junior buck.

Mark Lari took ribbons with entries in the New Zealand Red divisions with second place ribbons for senior doe, junior doe, and junior buck and third place ribbons for a junior and senior buck.

Lair, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Lair, took two fourth place ribbons in the New Zealand White Division.

Hill captured numerous honors with his rabbits that were shown. In the New Zealand White division, Hill took 12 first place ribbons and best of show with his entries. He captured best of show with a pre-junior doe, junior buck and took a 1st, 2nd, third and best 6-8 with a doe.

Chamber Of Commerce Corner

These are unusual and peculiar times in which we are living. The lecture platforms the radio waves and the newspapers are filled with serious and thoughtful discussions upon the problems of our age. I feel that I should discuss these problems, too, but I am afraid I cannot get as serious about them as some of our more learned citizens. I pity those people who fill their hearts and minds with worry—like the fine old Bishop who was worrying his heart out over what seemed to him the evils of a doomed world. He kept tossing on his bed until long past midnight, finally he thought he heard the Lord speak to him and say, "Go to sleep, Bishop, I'll sit up the rest of the night."

Well, we do have a great number of serious national problems and I'd like to touch on one of them, even if I can't get as serious about this problem as you may think I should.

Dr. Porter To Seguin

Dr. Jenny Lind Porter has resigned assistant professor of English at Southwest Texas College, San Marcos.

She is going to Texas Lutheran College at Seguin to become head of the English Department there. Dr. Porter was a member of the West Texas faculty before going to San Marcos.

Randall Co. To Purchase Autos

Commissioners Court Monday authorized Sheriff L. S. "Slim" Johnston to advertise for bids for two new sheriffs department cars.

The court indicated that the new cars may come equipped with air conditioners.

Two old cars will be traded in.

This is the problem of making ends meet—making a living for a family. Everytime we think we are about to make ends meet, someone comes along and moves the ends. Family expenses keep growing. The inflation which has come about in our land has kept on growing to such an extent that prices all over have jumped several times. I was in a hotel recently and in the room there was one of those conventional little signs on the door which read, "Have you left anything?" Someone who occupied the room before me had gone to work on the sign and changed it around so it read, "Have you anything left?"

As a member of your chamber board it is my duty to help make our community a better place to live in and to make a living. We know it's a good place to live but if we can't make a living are forced to move to another community. It seems that too many of us have too many irons in the fire and do not have enough time to pick out a goal to work towards and trying to do everything at once instead of something at once.

The only trouble with two irons in the fire is watching them. Then we start out to accomplish one thing and can't find the money or time to do it. It is too bad that all the world's biggest problems can't hit us when we are 17 years of age; that is when we know everything.

Children today are just like they have always been in generations before—boys and girls. Kids get smart so young these days you can't fool them by spelling words out. The only way you can keep them from knowing what you are talking about is to pretend you are talking to them. In the old days of the little red schoolhouse, if a kid hit a teacher they threw him out of school. Now we have progressive education, and if a kid hits a teacher it shows that he is aggressive and it would harm his personality to discourage him. Sometimes I think in our modern homes we control everything with switches except the children. Yes, we have lots of problems and each one is a challenge to work out and we can't lose our tempers and work them out. Your parents, your teachers and your friends can only do so much for boys and girls. About the time a young fellow starts growing up he begins to realize that he has to do his own growing—no matter how tall his grandfather was.

In school, the children get their lessons first and the tests afterwards. When they leave school and get out into the world, they get the test first and the lessons later. There is nothing easier for a young person today than attend college, and nothing harder than to get an education. A good education is a wonderful thing. It enables you to worry about conditions everywhere in the world. I used to be blue and down in the dumps while I was in school. Now I am depressed and despondent. I hear old people always saying that youth wastes its time. How I feel sorry for these oldsters who cannot remember that that is what youth is.

Yes, it is a confused world. Newspapers are full of stories about juvenile delinquents, and history books are filled with stories of ancient delinquents. Young people must through their lives create for themselves both a character and a reputation by what they fall for. The American people as a people and the American nation as a nation are perhaps the most inconsistent of any people or nation of history. Inconsistency is part of our way of life. The economic history of the United States has been one of panic and prosperity following each other in regular cycles.

To sum up our lives, we are so organized that an organization should be started to unorganize. It seems that everyone has so many problems of their own; that they have lost interest in helping others and joining together and work for a better community to live in and to make a living. Maybe this is just vacation time and its a time when kids are out of school and into everyone's hair or it's a time that the outdoors takes too many people from their work. Anyway we have a lot of work to do in the chamber of commerce and need help and money to accomplish the goals we have set up. I will close with this thought: OVER INDULGENCE KILLS MORE PEOPLE THAN OVERWORK.

Charlie Donnell

Baptist Youth Choir Returns

A combined youth choir from the First Baptist Churches of Canyon and Hereford returned Wednesday from a tour which took them to the west coast.

The two choirs were under the direction of Charles Lovell, minister of music at the First Baptist Church of Canyon. Duane Barrett, minister of music and education at the First Baptist Church of Hereford, was tour manager for the Youth Choir and his wife, Carolyn, served as accompanist.

Thirty-three youngsters from the two churches made the two week tour with appearances in New Mexico, Arizona, California, Nevada, Utah, and the final program was presented at the Youth Week Assembly in Glendale, New Mexico this week.

Choir members from Canyon were Carol Anderson, Faye Ann Brown, Linda Gill, Laura Plank, Karen Ruthart, Margaret Plank, Jan and Jill Jarnagin, Sharon Ruthart, Jennifer Schaeffer, Jimmy Newton, Gary Fairchild, Bill Jarnagin, Dean Schickedanz, and Kirby Sunderman.

Additional sponsors for the groups were Mrs. J. C. Newton and Mrs. C. A. Pruitt of Canyon, and Wayne Moore of Hereford.

C.E. Spear Rites Held

Funeral services for Charles Spear, 71, were conducted Wednesday in the Happy First Methodist Church.

Rev. S. H. Salley, former pastor of the church, officiated. He was assisted by the Rev. Vernon Willard, present pastor of the church, and Rev. Travis LaDuke, pastor of the First Baptist Church in Happy.

Burial was in the Happy Cemetery under the direction of LaGrone Funeral Home.

Active pallbearers were Dr. G. L. Robinson, Travis Payne, Hobart McManigal, Thomas Sexton, Cecil Greenfield, and Ed Flaherty.

Six honorary pallbearers were Roy Smith, Loyd Airhart, Herbert Wilkes, J. H. Stephenson, Alden Mann and A. J. Greenfield.

Mr. Spear had lived in Happy since 1925. He died at 11:20 p.m. Monday in Amarillo Osteopathic Hospital.

He was a retired employee of the Payne Implement Company of Happy and was a member of the First Methodist Church.

Mr. Spear was born July 19, 1892 in Vermillion County, Indiana. He married Helen Webster in Vigo Park on June 25, 1910.

Survivors include his wife; two sons, Robert of Brownfield and Clyde of Amarillo; a daughter, Mrs. Blanche Hale of Vega; two brothers, Cecil of Tulsa and Herman of Lakeview; a sister Mrs. Ollie Sner of Happy and six grandchildren.

Among guests for the occasion were Mrs. Graber's brothers, Leo Dettin of Panhandle, John Dettin, Arthur Dettin of St. Francis, and Robert Dettin of Amarillo and their families.

Mr. Graber's brother, Joe Graber, and son from Slaton were in attendance along with the couple's children, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Graber of Canyon, Mr. and Mrs. Bunie Graber of Umbarger, Mr. and Mrs. John Graber, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bertrand of St. Francis and Ed Graber.

A buffet supper honoring Joe Dettin was held recently at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dettin.

Joe was a spring graduate of WTSU. The cake featured a maroon and white cap with a diploma on it.

Attending the buffet supper were, Mr. and Mrs. Rob Dettin and family, the Ray Dettin family of Amarillo, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dettin of Rim Ranch, and the Joe Dettin family.

Calvin Robinson of Panhandle spent Sunday visiting his family, the L.C. Robinsons, and other friends in Canyon.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Peiman and Greg of Rapid City, South Dakota and Rev. and Mrs. Peiman of Lariat were guests Friday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L.C. Robinson.

An open house for the Pie-mans was held in the Robinson home Friday evening with approximately 35 attending.

Pie-man was a former Lutheran teacher and is now teaching in Rapid City, South Dakota.

Mrs. Floyd Thomas is in Room 355 at St. Anthony Hospital in Amarillo.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Allen and family were in Tulsa Sunday to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Mark Anderwald, parents of Mrs. Allen.

Visiting with relatives in Fort Worth last week was Mrs. Emmett Parson.

Jannia Thompson is vacationing in Colorado with the Henry

Lemke family of Amarillo. She reports through her family that it has been snowing in the mountains every day.

Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Parson and Larry were in Albuquerque New Mexico recently.

Swimming at the Canyonswimming pool last Tuesday were Mrs. Joan Thompson, Tim and Jenna, Annette Robinson, and Sonny and Steve Julian.

Mrs. Ray Loftin of Charles Road and his aunt, Mrs. Cress Norrell, from Amarillo left Monday for a trip to Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. They will be attending funeral services for a cousin.

Mrs. Francis Cable and children have moved into a house at the corner of Western and Mack until their home in Canyon is ready.

Vacation Bible School at Trinity Lutheran in Amarillo has been attended by Mrs. Ray Malzahn, Karen and Janet of Canyon. Annette, Marilyn and Wayne Robinson have also been attending the church school. Mrs. Malzahn is serving as a teacher.

Clem Kellogg is home from Houston and reported to be recuperating with a rest at Hot Springs, New Mexico.

Visiting with her aunt, Mrs. F. L. McGuire, in Lubbock this week is Miss Melinda Black of McCormick Road.

John Menke of Soncey Community brought in the first load of wheat to the Kellogg Grain Company at Soncey on June 9. It tested 59 pounds per bushel with 10 percent moisture. It was dryland wheat.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Goforth of Camp Lane and the Bill Smiths are on a trip to Los Angeles, California. The Goforths will attend the graduation of their grandson, Gary Goforth.

The Jolly Hobby Sewing Club met June 4th in the Ron Marlow home for election of officers to serve the next six months period.

Mrs. Bill Toler was elected as club president. Other officers elected were Mrs. R. G. Costley, secretary; and Mrs. Winston Davis, treasurer.

A sack lunch outing is being planned by the club for June 18th.

Present for the recent meeting were Mesdames R. G. Costley, Bill Toler, Floyd Thomas, Walter Quinn, Verdie Yarbrough, Glenn Evans, Kenneth Tillman, Winston Davis and the hostess, Mrs. Marlow.

Baseball Batting

Little League Baseball teams have been busy this week and last week, with two make-up games being played in addition to the regular schedule.

In the make-up game played June 3 the Yankees beat the Braves 7-6 in an eighth inning comeback.

Trailing the Braves 6-2 going into the bottom of the eighth, the Yankees rallied for 5 runs and the win.

Redlegs stopped the Dodgers 13-9 in the June 5 make-up game. The Redlegs scored 13 runs and had 9 hits, while the Dodgers scored 9 runs and got 10 hits.

Swinging back into the regular schedule the Braves defeated the Redlegs 6-4 last Thursday.

Ronnie Minier was the winning pitcher; Tom Callarman went all the way for the Redlegs. The Braves and Redlegs both got 7 hits.

Dodgers 10-Yankees 0 was the final of Saturday's major league game. Pitching for the Dodgers was Lynn Salmons; Tommy Tucker and Larry Daniels were on the mound for the Yankees.

Braves upset the Yankees Saturday night 10-8, cutting down a 7-0 first inning Yankee lead.

Following the first inning scoring, the Yankees were unable to score another run until the sixth inning. The Braves had 3 runs in the second, 3 in the third and 4 in the fourth to put them ahead.

David Day pitched for the Braves and Jerry Mariner was the Yankee hurler.

The Redlegs topped the Dodgers 4-3 in a close one Tuesday night.

David Erwin was the winning pitcher and John Ashley pitched for the Dodgers.

In the minor league Thursday the Phillies lost to the Indians 5-1. All runs scored by the Indians came in the first inning. Jerry Landrum pitched for the Indians; Tom Warren was pitcher for the Phillies.

Baseball Edition

The Canyon News staff would like to express congratulations and appreciation to the coaches and teams of the summer baseball program.

We are sorry we were unable to get pictures of Lawrence Hunnicutt, secretary of the Little League, and of the American Legion baseball team and Coach Velson Sogree. These pictures will be printed in later editions of The Canyon News this summer.

Troop 108 Plans Camp

A summer camp for Troop 108 will be held next week with the scouts participating at a variety of projects to complete requirements for rank advancement.

The group of Canyon scouts will leave Sunday afternoon and after setting camp will have a get together and Church Service Campfire Sunday evening.

During the week scouts will take part in such activities as swimming, lifesaving marksmanship, archery, compass reading, radio, signals, astronomy and many others.

Camp leaders will be Joe Stephens and Danny Douglas with Barry Brown as senior patrol leader.

The Canyon News wants your news. Telephone OL 5-2141, or stop by the News office.

GS Summer Day Camp Slated For Monday

Summer camp for Girl Scouts and Brownies of Canyon will start next Monday, June 15, with a week of activities planned for the girls according to Mrs. Charles Nester, chairman of the council.

"We have 130 campers enrolled now," Mrs. Nester stated earlier this week. The campers are students between the second and sixth grade, most of the older girls will serve as camp aides for the week camp.

The annual five day summer camp will be held at the Rod and Gun Club, east of town, with hiking, crafts, nature study, outdoor games and swimming in Tierra Blanca Creek as highlights of the week.

Camp director will be Mrs. Charles Nester with Mrs. Alfred Daniel as co-director and Mrs. Billy Hill as camp nurse.

Adult leaders and assistants will furnish transportation from the Girl Scout House to the campsite and back to the scout-house each day according to Mrs. Nester who emphasized that the camp is open to visitation from parents and guests.

Daily camp sessions will be held from 8:30 a.m. until 3:00 p.m. and the girls will do their lunchtime cooking outdoors along with other project activities connected with the girlscouting program.

An overnight camp-out for the older girls including Girl Scout juniors, cadets, and program aids will be held June 18, Thursday, with an evening campfire, cook-out supper, and sleeping in tents.

The week's activities will be concluded with a flag ceremony on Friday afternoon, June 19, as each scout presents a segment of the program by showing crafts, projects, and skits that were learned during the weeks camp.

Troop leaders, older Girl Scouts, and assistants will serve as supervisors for the day camp activities.

Mrs. Hammonds Hostess For Variety Ring

Mrs. J. P. Hammonds hosted a meeting of the Variety Ring last Friday afternoon with members making plans for their annual summer picnic.

August 7th was set as picnic date for the club. It will be held in the backyard of Mrs. Jeannette Robbins beginning at 7:30.

Along with needlework items, club members were entertained with a picture review of their spring 'hat parade.'

Present for the meeting were Mesdames Fred Marshall, Winn Matsler, Levi Cole, Jeannette Robbins, Alice Black, Nina White, George Barker, Lang Hunter, P. L. Pitt, Estelle Rice and the hostess, Mrs. Hammonds.

Mrs. Estelle Rice will hostess the next regular club meet on June 19th at her home. Mrs. Lang Hunter will be co-hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Suggs are shown here as they attended the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum Reception honoring artist Suggs. Approximately 700 people viewed the oil painting exhibit Sunday afternoon in the museum Hall of Fine Arts. The paintings will be on display throughout the month of June, according to the museum curator Boone McClure.

Tom Suggs Given Reception Sunday

A reception was held Sunday in the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum for J. T. "Tom" Suggs, whose oil paintings will be on exhibit there through June 30.

Eighteen paintings, divided into two sections depicting "Animals and Wild Life" and "Out West and South of the Border," are on display in the Hall of Fine Arts.

Suggs, who places oil painting among his principal hobbies (including those of hunting and fishing), says the subject matter for his paintings comes "mostly from what I see on my hunting trips" and "people I see while wandering around."

Among his animal paintings are "The Winner" portraying in detail a prize rooster, "Wild Gobblers," and "Buck Fight." In painting people, Suggs has done "Shepherd's Midnight Service," a blue-toned picture of a shepherd kneeling before a mountain-top cross to pray; "Boy Selling Iguanas"; and "Someone's Coming." Other subject matter is featured in the remainder of his paintings. Although he has been painting for more than 30 years, Suggs has had no formal art education. He has studied oil paintings and has taken informal instruction. He also has worked with painters, including Reveau Bassett (Dallas) and Paul Branson (New York City-Wilson, Wyoming), both painters of wild life.

Suggs, born in Denison, now lives in Dallas where he is director of the First National Bank. He is director of the State National Bank of Denison, and chairman of the boards of both the Texas and Pacific Railway

Arthur Canada of Chenook, Wyoming is spending the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Oldham. Arthur is the brother of Robert Canada who arrived last week to spend several weeks visiting with the Oldhams, and their other grandmother, Mrs. M. T. Canada.

CHEVELLE by Chevrolet

FRISKY AS IT CAN BE...FINE A BUY AS YOU CAN GET (even finer now!)

Trade 'N' Travel Time is running out at your Chevrolet dealer's. This is about your last chance to get in a whole summerful of fun with a beautiful buy like a Chevelle Malibu wagon.

Let us point out some less obvious pleasures. It has curved side windows—not just for looks, but to give you more shoulder room.

It has those self-cleaning rocker panels beneath the doors that resist rust.

Inside, the upholstery over its wide foam-cushioned seats is soft, durable vinyl.

We don't want anything playing havoc with Chevelle's good looks if we can help it.

All in all, there are 11 different Chevilles being offered during Trade 'N' Travel Time. Wagons, coupes, Super Sports, convertibles, sedans. One's as beautiful a buy as the other. It's up to you. But hurry, whatever you do!

League Days End For Callarman

"I still correspond with Little League boys all over the world who played on my first team 21-years ago," recalls Dr. C. C. Callarman.

Dr. Callarman was the first Canyon League president. "This is my last year in the Little League -- I've had five Little Leaguers."

Before coming to Canyon to join in forming the first league

Dr. Callarman coached a team in Oregon. "My best team -- which was the one I coached in the summer of 1943 -- went undefeated and wasn't scored on. We had a four-county tournament every year with all-city league team winners playing."

Dr. Callarman now occasionally serves as scorekeeper for Little League games. His youngest son, Tom, plays on the Red Legs. Bill Callarman, presently a student at West Texas State University, does part time umpiring duties for the Little Leaguers.

Eligibility Outlined For Little Leaguers

One of the biggest questions facing the Little League activities each year is eligibility. Who determines rules for a boy's eligibility and what is included?

Little League rules come first from national headquarters and are applied to every Little League team organization from Canada, Mexico and the United States down to Canyon's league.

Simply stated, Little League rules show that any boy who has not reached the age of 13 years by August 1 is eligible to play Little League ball. September 1, with the maximum age of 15 years, applies to Babe Ruth ball.

The August 1 deadline is inclusive, meaning that a boy who is 13 on August 1 is still eligible to play Little League ball. However, if a boy attained the age of 13 years on July 31 or earlier, he is not eligible.

Minimum age for eligibility in the Little League is 8 years. Boys who have reached their 8th birthday on August 1 or later are eligible to play in the 8-year-old division of the Pee Wee League.

A boy who has reached his 8th birthday on or after August 1 is eligible to play in the 9-year-old division. Reaching the age of 10 years on or after August 1 places a boy's eligibility in the minor division of regular Little League play.

Candidates for play are required to submit a birth certificate or hospital record as proof of age to the Little League president at least 48 hours before the player auction begins.

The local league president is responsible for and must certify the eligibility of each player prior to the auction selection.

Any player who fails to attend at least 50 percent of the spring training sessions shall become ineligible for play unless excused by the manager.

Girls are not eligible for Little League. Also, players must live within the boundaries set up by the league unless a player changes residence or league boundaries change after the boy has already been accepted. The league can then reserve the right to continue the boy as a player.

Uniforms Are Provided For Little Leaguers

Uniforms for Canyon Little Leaguers are provided according to each player's team division.

Players for the majors are given full uniforms. Minors and Pee Wee teams receive shirts and caps.

The uniforms, with the exception of the caps, remain the property of the Little League and must be returned at the end of the playing season. The boys are given the caps as mementoes of the team.

Uniforms and equipment are paid for by the Little League through concession stand profits and contributions from individuals, local civic groups and clubs.

The League also provides each team's dugout with at least five protective helmets. Rules say the batter and all base runners must wear the helmets while playing ball.

Baseball shoes with metal cleats have been prohibited. Shoes with rubber cleats are approved.

Wearing the uniform is limited to game play. The rules require that league shoulder patches be worn on the left shoulder for proper identification.

Uniforms must be dry-cleaned only, according to league regulations. Coaches instruct the boys as to when they should have the uniforms cleaned.

Roy Lyles, coach of the minor league Indians, has coached in the minors four years.

"Little League baseball is a good game, good for the boys, it teaches them discipline, sportsmanship, how to play ball, and even goes so far as to help the boys face a few problems in life. It also teaches them to follow the leadership of others and how to get along with other boys."

Chamber Praises Program

The Canyon Chamber of Commerce congratulates the Little League and the Babe Ruth League organizations and the many persons involved in their promotion in Canyon.

Charlie Donnell, president of the chamber of commerce, said, "We feel that Canyon is very fortunate to have such a well organized program of junior baseball for the youngsters of Canyon."

"Little League and Babe Ruth League are contributing factors to the community while building a storehouse of future baseball talent. The support of the leagues by the clergy, school and business people, contributes to the unity and strength of the community, giving them a common goal to work for. The leagues bring the community closer together by having the members of the community work together."

"The Little League and Babe Ruth League programs are also responsible for teaching and guiding Canyon's youth towards worthwhile activities."

"We encourage every Canyon citizen and parent to attend the Little League and Babe Ruth League games and wherever possible to participate in the voluntary programs that keep the leagues alive."

New Idea Tried For Umps

A new idea is being tried in the umpiring of the Pee Wee games for the Canyon Little League.

Officials of the Little League have instituted the use of Babe Ruth League players as umpires to call the games of the 8 and 9 year olds in the Pee Wee Leagues.

The idea behind the use of the Babe Ruth League players as umpires is a three-fold one. First it will solve the always present headache of finding umpires to call the Pee Wee games.

The real value of the player use, however, is a double barreled one. The theory is that the small boys will respect the skill of the older boys. Associating with the older players should encourage the Pee Wee players to continue with their baseball to eventually become a Babe Ruth player some day.

The other side of the coin is the chance it will give the Babe Ruth players to be an adult in community affairs. It will also give the player a chance to see what it is like to be an umpire.

This should give him a broader understanding of the umpire's responsibilities when he plays in his own league, according to league officials.

Pee Wee Leagues Have Two New Playing Fields

The recently organized Pee Wee Leagues, as a part of the Little League, now have new playing fields on the west side of the regular Little League fields near city park. The Pee Wee League is for 8 and 9 year olds.

Little League president Bill Lee, said the use of the fields is through the courtesy of Aubrey Crossland, who let the Little League build two baseball diamonds on a part of his pasture for the summer season.

The Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity, of West Texas University campus, volunteered to build the baseball fields for the Little League as a community service. The fraternity pitched in with materials supplied by the Little League and built two baseball diamonds with backstops, player benches, fences and improved grasses.

The Little League maintains the two new fields during the summer baseball season. The fields are returned to winter pasture after the season is over.

The east field is used by the 9 year olds of the Pee Wee League and the west field by the 8 year olds.

Built especially for the small Pee Wee League players, the two fields are smaller than the regulation Little League field. The plates are 50 feet apart instead of the regulation 60 feet and the distance from the pitcher's mound to home plate is 40 feet instead of the regular 46 feet for Little League play.

Rules for play are also special for the Pee Wee League. Five runs by a Pee Wee League team in their half of the inning, closes that half. This is done to preclude long, drawn out innings, assuring each player of a chance at bat and to play their field positions.

Little League Begun In 1956

The history of Canyon's Little League began in 1956 with a feeling of concern by Canyon fathers and businessmen for their boys.

"We just wanted a ball program for our youngsters," says Bud Parker, first Little League president. "We began the program as a Little League organization, under the national organization."

"We bought regular baseball uniforms for the first teams, raised our own funds and used the same playing fields that are being used now," Parker recalls.

Among the first men to help organize the Little League were Parker, T. G. Hull, A. W. Lair, Clark Jarnagin, Nig Callahan, Hugh Greiner and Dr. W. J. Wooten.

Officers for this year's Little League are Bill Lee, president; Rev. Dale Harter, vice president; Lawrence Hunnicutt, secretary; Russell Altmiller, treasurer; and Dr. Burwell Southern, player agent.

Concession Stand Open During Games

One of the fund-raising links for both Babe Ruth and Little League organizations in Canyon is the volunteer-operated concession stand at the ball park.

The stand, jointly owned by the two leagues, sells popcorn, cookies, cold drinks, sandwiches, candies and snow cones. Profits from the stand go to the two leagues to help defray expenses to keep the leagues in operation.

Truett Hull, last year's Little League president, and managers arranged a type of concession-agreement which is being used this year. Mothers of the major league and Babe Ruth League operate the stand. Mothers of the minors and Pee Wee Leagues bring sandwiches and cookies to the stand on game days.

Joe Byrd is the man in charge of the supplies for the stand and restrooms, which are nearby. Maintenance work is done by Max Bosley and Roland Hicks.

BR League Has 7 Teams

Hard work, dedication and enthusiasm has sparked the growth of Canyon's Babe Ruth League since it was established in 1957.

The first league, with Dr. C. C. Callarman as president, had only four teams. It now operates with seven teams, including boys from Happy, UMBarger and Amarillo.

Presidents of the Canyon Babe Ruth League following Dr. Callarman have been Tom Langston, Col. Edward Lindsey and presently Dr. Dudley

Moore, Jr., president since 1959.

Included among those who helped establish the league are Frank Begert, Chet Reynolds, Jim Boyd, George Ritter, Borden Price, Bob Bellah, Bill Sternberg, Don Olson, Joe Abbott and Earl Crump. Many others also contributed their time and effort, according to league officials.

Present league officers are Dr. Dudley Moore, Jr., president; Jack Downing, vice president and player agent; Francis Shell, treasurer; and Dr. George deSchweinitz, secretary.

Four Baseball Groups Play Summer Schedules

American Legion Team, Babe Ruth League, Little League and Pee Wee League are four groups organized for Canyon boys during the summer.

Divided into broad age groups, the program provides Canyon youngsters with athletic competition, and at the same time teaches him values of athletic skills and competitive sportsmanship.

Babe Ruth League baseball is set up for boys ranging from ages 12 through 15. Little League ages include 10 through 12. Pee Wee League includes ages 8 and 9.

American Legion ball is for boys 16 through 18.

A youngster beginning in the Pee Wee League at the age of 8 years can continue through Little League, Babe Ruth League and into American Legion ball.

Canyon Babe Ruth League is set up with seven teams, including the three teams from Happy, Amarillo and Umbarger.

Little League is set up in divisions of majors and minor teams.

More experienced boys usually make up the major teams while the "rookies" are on the minors.

The smallest baseball players are the Pee Wee Leaguers, divided into 8-year-old and 9-year-old divisions.

American Legion baseball is the top level group and Canyon is included in the eighteenth district, competing with Vega, Borger, Pampa, Dumas and Perryton.

Field and equipment sizes and rules are scaled to fit each group, and are appropriately scaled down for the three younger groups.

Time limits, number of innings played, safety equipment and other rules and regulations are set up to fit the strength and size of each group.

Olsen, Dennis Pearson, Jerry Lehnick, Jack Swartzell, Joe Moore, Charles Starnes, and coaches Eddie Holcomb and Rev. Newton Starnes.

Babe Ruth League Rules Are Outlined

Babe Ruth League competition is conducted for only one age group.

All players must be at least 13 years of age and may not have reached their 16th birthday by September 1 of the year in which they wish to play.

Regulation games are seven innings with leagues composed of four to six teams. Chartered leagues may contain eight, ten or twelve teams, provided they are divided into separate divisions of no more than six teams per division.

Although Babe Ruth teams play on standard ball diamonds with standard equipment, it is recommended that out-field distance be shortened to compensate for the youth of the players.

Each Babe Ruth team is required to carry an approved team accident insurance policy, protecting its players against accidents in practice, regular or tournament games and travel to and from games.

Post-season tournament competitions are conducted between tournament teams selected for the League's tournament team. Players must have played at least one half of the games played by their individual teams, except pitchers who must have competed in at least one quarter of the games their teams have played.

Chartered leagues engaged in local competition throughout the season select and enter tournament teams in district, state, regional and "World Series" play according to Babe Ruth League, Inc. rules.

The "World Series" championship tournament is composed of play among eight regional champions and a host team from the city in which the competitions are held.

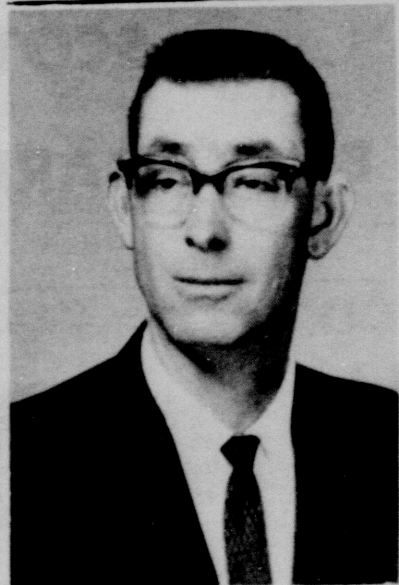

The expense of the "World Series" is taken by the Babe Ruth League, Inc., which furnishes travel expenses, housing, meals, entertainment and other related items.

In tournament play, awards are made to the state, regional and "World Series" championship teams. Individual awards are made to the players on the series championship and runner-up teams.

LL Umps Have Difficult Job

"He's out!" yells the umpire. The stands roar, "You're blind as a bat! He was safe by a mile!"

Such might be common in a big league stadium where the fans are rooting for their favorite baseball team--professional, that is.

Little League Umpires, however, spend their time and efforts on a strictly voluntary basis, calling the games for the little baseballers.

The Little League umpires are not men with big league experience nor are they paid for the work. While they are not fully familiar with the Little League rules, they are trying to do their level best to be fair and call a fair game.

Where a controversy over a called decision develops, all the Little League managers have an agreement with the volunteer umpires whereby they all gather in a caucus in the center of the field, away from the distractions of the stands, and come to an agreement over the controversy.

After the agreement, the game is resumed without further controversy or argument.

Bill Lee, as president of the Little League for this season, says he has trouble finding anyone willing to take over the responsibility for calling the games. Working on a voluntary basis and using their own personal time, the umpires aren't too sympathetic with the nearly professional rhubarbing that sometimes comes from the parents of the Little Leaguers in the stands at game time.

Lee says the parents often tend to get emotionally involved with the games and tend to over-emphasize the competition of the games instead of the sportsmanship and game skills.

Lee cautions Little League parents to refrain from getting Larry Kingsley is the coach for the Pee Wee League Angels and this is his first year to coach in Canyon. He had previous coaching experience in Spearman.

"I'm coaching the Angels because I'm just interested in the kids," Larry commented. Though Larry feels he may not be the best of coaches, he hopes his interest in baseball "may help to make up for it."

250 Boys In League Contests

Approximately 250 "bubble-gum" ballplayers are taking part in the Canyon Little League this year, according to league president Bill Lee.

Canyon Little League is an annual project of a group of fathers and Canyon businessmen. Through their efforts and sponsorship, Canyon boys ages 8 through 12 years are offered the advantages of a nine week program of organized baseball.

Canyon Little League play began May 15. The rules and schedules set play on a four day week with no games on Wednesday, Friday or Sunday. This schedule allows teams to play two games a week, excepting every third week. That week they will play only one game each.

Boys from Canyon, Umlar, Happy and Amarillo have registered for play with the leagues this summer. In the Babe Ruth League, teams include Pirates, Giants, Happy Yankees, Fannin Panthers, Umlar Colts, Cardinals and White Sox.

Little League teams are divided into major and minor teams. Teams in the majors are the Red Legs, Yankees, Braves and Dodgers. In the minors, teams are the Indians, Cubs, Phillies, Colts, and Tigers.

The Pee Wee League 9-year-olds are the Mets, Angels and Twins. Teams for the 8-year-olds are the Red Sox, Orioles and Senators.

Player agent for the Little League this year is Dr. Burl Southern. This is his first year as player agent.

The job, a busy one, is elective. As player agent, Dr. Southern is the man who conducts the annual auction of players for various teams. He also assists the president of the Little League in checking eligibility of players. He coordinates the players' transfer to or from the minor leagues. In addition, he serves as a member of the Little League board of directors.

Dr. Dudley Moore Heads Canyon Babe Ruth League

Dr. Dudley Moore, Jr., president of the Babe Ruth League, firmly believes in making Canyon's Babe Ruth League program a part of the over-all summer program.

"We are part of the over-all summer activities," he emphasizes. "Our games are scheduled for four days per week costs us approximately $800 to $900, lights $300 and insurance $300."

"We buy catching equipment, bats and baseballs. We use two or three baseballs per game, about nine dozen each year. This year we bought new uniforms for Fannin, the Amarillo team."

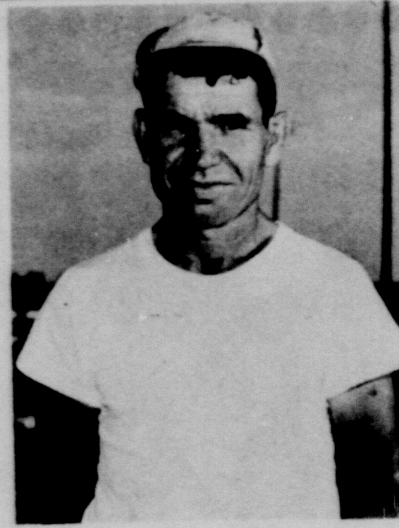

ents attend the games. And we've had good attendance by the boys. Over half the boys are in scouting programs and other activities; 30 percent of them have regular jobs."

"The boys are well-insured," Dr. Moore said. "Every boy is protected in each game, protected in traveling to and from the All-Star games and in practice. Bases and lights are also protected."

Batting helmets are required protection in every game. "In six or seven years only two really serious injured have occurred, last year when one boy broke his leg, and again when another suffered a fracture."

Dr. Moore pointed with pride to the practice of raising the flag before each game. "The home team has two boys to raise the flag and before each game we play 'America'. It doesn't take long, but it makes you stop to think for a second."

Joe Batson, Little League coach for the Redlegs, thinks the baseball program "teaches sportsmanship."

Batson, in his second year of coaching the Redlegs and formerly coaching the minors, says, "Baseball teaches the kids sportsmanship and other important things, and gives the kids an opportunity to play a little baseball along with it."

Canyon Will Be Host For Tournament

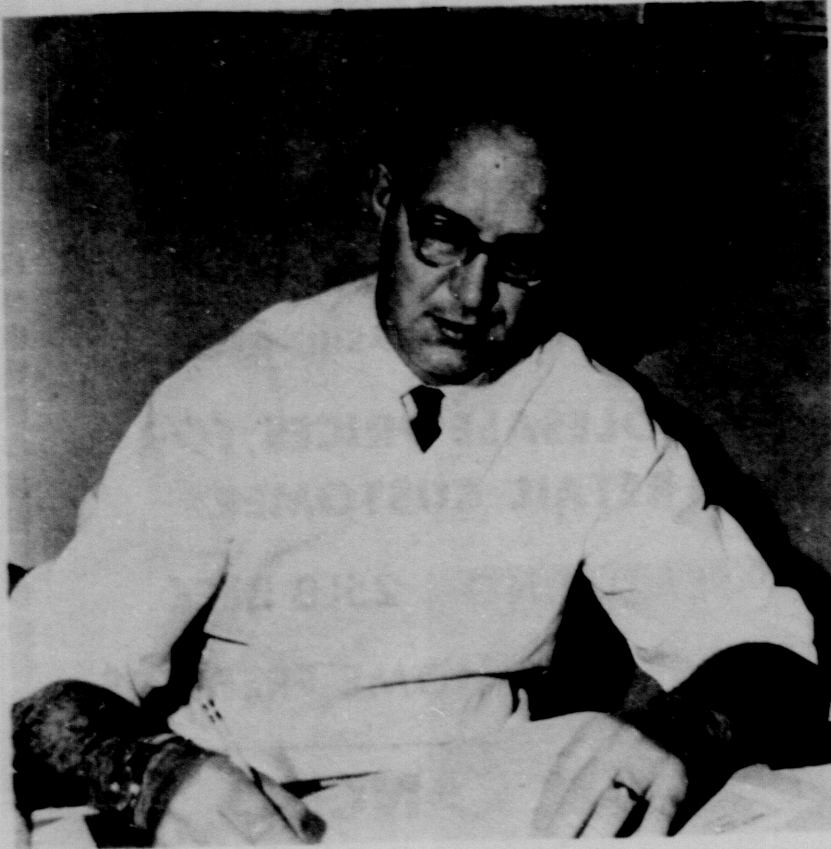

Canyon Babe Ruth League will send teams to Babe Ruth District Tournament to be held in Pampa in mid-July.

State play-offs will be held in Levelland.

Two of the Canyon Babe Ruth teams will compete in the tournament. The Babe Ruth League draws on the Little League graduates for its players. The Babe Ruth League provides the place for young baseballers to play after they have progressed through the ranks of the 8 and 9 year old Pee Wee players to the 10, 11 and 12 year old Little Leaguers. The maximum age for the Babe Ruth boys is 15 years.

Babe Ruth League is governed by strict laws and rules set up by the National Babe Ruth League organization in Trenton, New Jersey. The organization is divided into states and then districts with overseas leagues for the benefit of the American armed forces.

Each year a world championship team is found through the competitions. This year the Babe Ruth "World Series" will be held in Woodland, California, on August 23 through September 1.

Dr. Dudley Moore, Jr., is shown as he works over his desk with the schedule for the summer Babe Ruth League program. Moore is president of the league and works closely with members and coaches of each team.

This leaves Mondays free for the scouting program; and we cooperate with the school. The program is planned to fit in with other summer activities instead of being made separately in a way that might interfere with them."

Each Babe Ruth team plays 12 games. During May five weekends are scheduled with Saturday afternoon and night games. Each team draws a bye. The regular summer schedule is on the 4-day basis, with 8 games at Umberger this year.

"It costs about $1,500 to operate the program each year," Dr. Moore said. "Equipment

Money is raised from 40 percent of the concessions profit, from service clubs, selling candy and a queen contest.

"We are switching our field to bermuda grass this year. We planted the infield and one-third of the outfield before this season began and will plant again in July. It will take about two years to get the fields completely switched."

Dr. Moore praised the parents and others who help with the league. "The cooperation we get with people is excellent. Most people are always willing to help."

Baseball Fields Built To Fit Each Team Level

Spunky Little Leaguers do their baseball playing on fields two-thirds big league size. Regulation big league field dimensions are cut to two-thirds size to fit the stamina and height of the Little League team. The distance between bases is 60 feet instead of 90. The pitcher's mound is 46 feet from home plate, changed from the big league 60 feet 6 inches. Pee Wee fields are even smaller, with base runs measuring 50 feet and the pitcher's mound-home base distance 40 feet. Four fields are now being used by the Babe Ruth, Little and Pee Wee Leagues. All are located in the east end of Canyon near Canyon city park.

Babe Ruth League uses the south field while Little Leaguers use the north field. Pee Wee Leaguers play on the fields west of the regular playing fields. Bleachers for the Babe Ruth field are on the west side of the playing area. They are designed to seat up to 100 persons. Small stands are available on the north side of the Little League field, with seats for about 50 people. Many spectators watch games from their cars which they park around the edges of the fields.

Babe Ruth and Little League fields are both equipped with player dugouts where coaches and players can watch the progress of the games in the shade and with protection from occasional showers. The dugouts also have a wire fronting to protect the players from stray balls. Lighting for the two fields was purchased by the Leagues from a semi-pro league that closed shop in Turkey. Canyon fathers and businessmen went to Turkey with trucks, tools and winches. They pulled up the 60 foot poles from the ground after removing the lighting equipment. The poles were placed on long trucks and the entire arrangement proceeded back to Canyon where the volunteers erected the equipment. The lights were turned on for the first time in 1956.

Babe Ruth games go seven innings, with no innings beginning after 7:30 or 10 p.m. Games begin at 7:30 unless scheduled otherwise.

Little League games begin at 5:30 and 7:30 p.m., with no innings starting after 7 or 9:15 p.m.

Bernard Harman is manager for the Umbarger Colts, while Ronald Kershen coaches the team.

Kershen who coached Hereford Little League baseball last year, said Babe Ruth baseball is a "wonderful way to fill up the boys' time and team competition and sports are good things for them."

Cleaning Drive Is This Week

The Jaycee-ettes of Canyon are conducting a 'closet cleaning' drive to assist the Veterans of Foreign Wars this week.

"We are in need of used clothing, small appliances, furniture, toys and other items which may be repaired," says Mrs. Charles Marshall, Jaycee-ette chairman.

The collection of 'closet' items will be taken to the VFW Used Store in Amarillo for repairs and resale with profits going to aid the hospital program for veterans.

"We will pick up donations through Friday by calling OL 5-3383," stated Mrs. Marshall. Donated items will be presented the local VFW Post and Auxiliary Units and a unit representative from Amarillo Saturday morning, June 13.

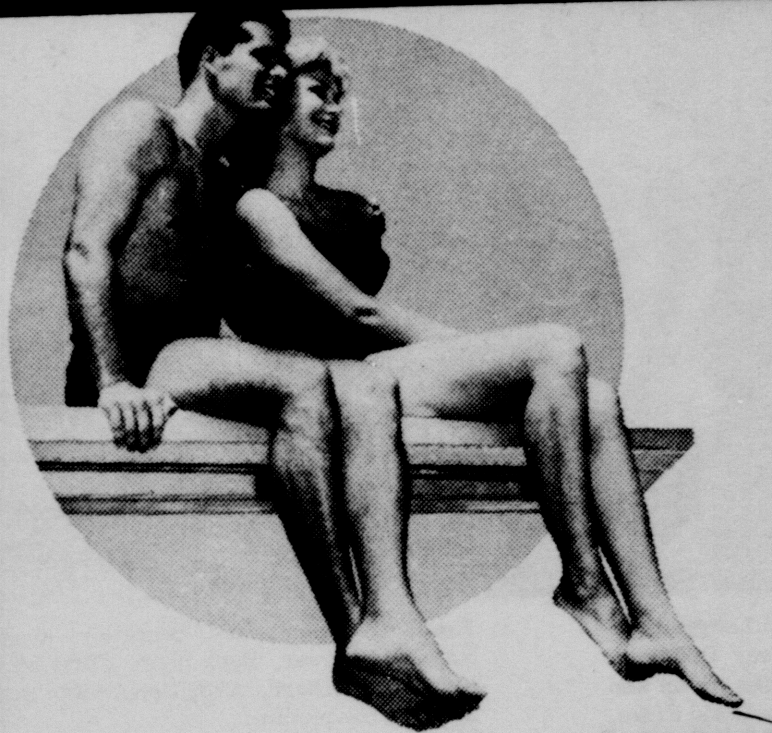

A.B. Morris To Monterey

Lieutenant Alvin B. Morris, 30, has been selected for an intensive course of instruction in Spanish at the Defense Language Institute, Presidio of Monterey, California, under the Armed Force's stepped-up program for overcoming a critical shortage of skilled linguists.

The son of Mr. Edward D. Morris, 1003 4th Avenue, Canyon, is a graduate of Canyon High School. He was also graduated from OCS (Officer Candidate School) in March, 1962, from which he was a distinguished graduate.

Lieutenant Morris has arrived in Monterey after completing other military duties with the 18th Infantry, Ft. Riley, Kansas.
